

FILIPE DE VASCONCELOS FERNANDES – SHORT BIO

Filipe de Vasconcelos Fernandes is an Assistant Professor at the University of Lisbon School of Law, where he graduated in Law (2012), obtained a Master's degree in Constitutional Tax Law (2017), and completed his PhD in Tax Law (2023).

He is an Integrated Researcher at the European Economic, Financial and Tax Law Research Center (CIDEFF).

He teaches and researches in the areas of Tax Law, Economic Law (Regulated Sectors), Public Economics, and Energy Law.

He is a member of governing bodies in companies in the energy sector, and is also a member of the board of the Portuguese Association for the Promotion of Hydrogen (AP2H2).

He is Senior Counsel at Vieira de Almeida & Associados (VdA).

He has published approximately 10 books and 50 scientific articles.